Positions & Quotes

"While too many in D.C. remain in the grips of the NRA, we're the state that stands up for common sense gun safety reforms. We've closed background check loopholes, banned bump stocks and approved protective orders that keep guns away from people in crisis."

"We need immediate action, today. We need to remove from office those people who are in bed with the National Rifle Assn. I voted to ban assault weapons in 1994, knowing that I'd lose my seat if I did, and I lost my seat, but I have never regretted that vote. That was the right vote then; it's the right vote now."
